THE ANNUAL MEETING FEW OF THE NEW LAWS

Of the Cattle and Horse Protective Association of Central New Mexico.

IN MAGDALENA ON WEDNESDAY

Officers Elected and Resolution Passed Favoring Government Control of Grazing Lands.

The regular annual meeting of the Cattle and Horse Protective Association of Central New Mexico was held in Magdalena Wednesday. The meetings of the association are always anticipated with interest by stockmen and by others who are in sympathy with their efforts to improve conditions in this part of the territory. There was a good attendance Wednesday, the proceedings aroused a lively interest on part of those present, and action taken on some subjects can hardly fail to result in benefit to the members of the association and to the general public. After the transaction of routine business officers for next year were elected as follows: Chairman, Jas. W. Medley; Secretary, W. P. Sanders; Treasurer, Wm. Gardiner. These officers are also members of the executive committee, the other two members of the committee elected being E. H. Sweet of Socorro and C. Chavez of San Marcial. Addresses were delivered by J. H. Hatton, acting supervisor of the Magdalena and San Mateo forest reserves, Will C. Barnes, secretary of the Cattle Sanitary Board of New Mexico, E. A. Clemens, Capt. C. H. Kirkpatrick of Mogollon, and others. The introduction of a resolution favoring government control of grazing lands called forth an interesting discussion but the resolution was passed. There were in attendance a good many who are not stockmen, but they were much interested in the proceedings and will in one way or another share in the benefits.

The resolution in favor of government control of public grazing lands was as follows: "Resolved, That this association favors some sort of government control of the public grazing lands under the direction of the secretary of agriculture and under such rules and regulations as may be found just and necessary for the protection both of the grazing lands and the stock raisers, the arrangements conforming as nearly as possible to conditions."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Rufus Rastus Minstrels.

The Rufus Rastus Minstrels played to the largest house of the season at the opera house last night. The company is made up of artists and the performance they gave last night was the best of its kind, that has ever been given in this city. The show is clean and one that anyone will not regret seeing and is well worth the price of admission.

MAUNDAY THURSDAY FEAST

Thirty-second Degree Masons of Socorro and Vicinity Observe the Solemn Rite.

Twelve Thirty-second Degree Scottish Rite Free Masons assembled at the office of C. T. Brown to observe the Maunday Thursday feast of spotless lamb and unleavened bread. This solemn rite is always carefully observed by Scottish Rite Masons and is usually followed by an hour of pleasant social enjoyment. In this latter respect last Thursday evening's observance was no exception. C. T. Brown, Honorable Inspector General, Thirty-third Degree Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, was master of ceremonies. Those present were Messrs. C. T. Brown, H. A. True, Jas. G. Fitch, Dr. C. G. Duncan, W. M. Borrowdale, J. P. Chase, John E. Griffith, Geo. E. Cook, Leo Loewenstein, O. R. Smith, R. N. Hines, and E. A. Drake.

REV. H. M. PERKINS

Reverend and Mrs. H. M. Perkins are not to remain in Socorro. This announcement, made several days ago by Mr. Perkins himself, caused no little disappointment among the many friends whom he and his family made during their short stay of a little less than a year in Socorro. Mr. Perkins has been called to a much wider field of activity. He will go to Savannah, Georgia, where he will engage in the organization of four or five districts in the work of the Presbyterian church. This is a class of work for which Mr. Perkins is especially well fitted, as is shown by the result of his efforts in Socorro. During his charge of the interests of the Presbyterian church here the number of communicants was fully doubled, and the prosperity of the church was greatly promoted in other respects. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left Tuesday morning for Deming where he attended the session of the presbytery. From Deming they expected to go to Stamps, Arkansas, for a visit of a few days in the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. R. Stewart, before going on to Savannah. Their son Homer will join them in Texas. Mr. Perkins and family leave many warm friends in Socorro, who will wish them abundant health and happiness wherever their lot may be cast.

CHANCES FOR STUDENTS

Two Hundred Dollars a Year Allowed by the Territory to Defray Expenses.

The appropriation bill passed by the late legislative assembly contained one provision that is sure to result in direct benefit to many of the young people of the territory. The provision is to the effect that each member of the thirty-seventh assembly, also each board of county commissioners, may appoint one student to any territorial institution for a period of four years. The student, or his parent, has the privilege of selecting the institution, and the person or board making the appointment determines the rules under which the appointment is made. The legislative assembly appropriated $12,500 to pay the expenses of such students, $200 per school year being allowed to each. The boards of county commissioners are authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur in their respective counties.

NOTABLE WEDDING AT BELEN

Miss Anita Becker, Daughter of Wealthy Merchant, Weds Prominent Civil Engineer.

What was doubtless the most elaborate wedding that ever took place in Belen society was that of Wednesday afternoon when Miss Anita Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, became the bride of A. C. Bradley of Lawrence, Kansas. The bride is a charming and accomplished young lady. The groom is a civil engineer of ability. He has recently had charge of the construction work of the Belen cut-off. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Bradley left at once for a honeymoon trip to Los Angeles and other points of interest on the Pacific coast.

HILARITY AND MIRTH REIGN.

High-Class Clean and Moral in Tone.

Brings an interesting attraction into local views for the first time, and it will in all probability be the chief amusement happening of the spring season in theatrical circles. The attraction is the Famous Rufus Rastus Colored Minstrels, an aggregation numbering thirty of the most talented colored performers in the United States, all of them past masters in depicting the comedy of the negro race and the old fashioned pastimes of slavery days. The programme is said to be of such excellence that nearly every performance this season has found a full house.

The people who furnish the entertainment might all be put in the "headliner" class while there are several who stand pre-eminent and such are the Clever Carys in coon and love songs. Hear them sing "My Pretty Little Kickapoo" and "The Moon's Got His Eye on You." James and Moody two of the very best colored comedians on the minstrel stage. Hear them sing "Good-bye, I See you no More" and "If you wanta Meet a Johana Man, Shake Hands With Me." The Roys, John and Lizzie, America's greatest buck and wing dancers and cake walkers. The Wilson trio, in a series of musical selections. The Great Layton who does some wonderful stunts on the wire. The celebrated Albermarle quartette, Messrs. Joe Galloway, Al Edwards, George Hughes, Al Hawkins, in popular songs and southern melodies. Marvelous Drakero, the boneless wonder. Joe Galloway, that big black minstrel man. Hear him sing "Here Comes That Rufus Rastus Band." Miss May White, Lizzie Roy, Miss Cary, Miss Fannie Parks, Miss George Smith, George Israel, Wm. Israel, James Harris, George Nutt, Ed Holland, A. J. Jones, James Olney, Wm. Hoyle, Joe Hughes, and many others are also in the bill.

JULIAN J. TRUJILLO DEAD

A Man of Marked Ability Suddenly Goes to His Reward.

Julian J. Trujillo is dead. Death claimed its own at eleven o'clock Tuesday night at Rancho de La Joya where the deceased was teaching school. The news caused great surprise and profound sorrow among the many relatives and friends of Mr. Trujillo in Socorro and vicinity. Death resulted from a severe cold which developed into a fever and other complications. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery at La Joya in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives, friends, and acquaintances.

Mr. Trujillo was born in Socorro in 1844. He was educated for the priesthood but never took orders. At various times he occupied a variety of public positions, everyone of which he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to those whom he served. It is doubtful whether any man in New Mexico ever taught public school in as many districts as Mr. Trujillo did. He was a man of unquestioned ability and kindly disposition. His sorrowing family have, therefore, the keen sympathy of an extremely large circle of friends and acquaintances. May he rest in peace.

Sheriff Aniceto C. Abeytia did an excellent piece of work this week in the capture of Jose Luzano, wanted for appropriating unto himself a span of horses and a carriage belonging to Luis Chavez of Escondido. Very soon after the proper documents were placed in Sheriff Abeytia's hands he located his man at Vado de Juan Pais in Guadalupe county, sent Deputy Henry Dreyfus for him, and Luzano is now in the Socorro county jail awaiting his preliminary hearing.

Cashier E. L. Price of the Socorro State Bank is the proud possessor of an adding machine of the most approved pattern. The machine had become an absolute necessity because of the rapidly growing business of the
